If ever there were a people who should be constantly sensitive to their destiny, the people of Berlin, East and West, should be they. - Martin Luther King, Jr. In the wake of World War II, the European continent was devastated, and the conflict left the Soviet Union and the United States as uncontested superpowers. This ushered in over 45 years of the Cold War, and a political alignment of Western democracies against the Communist Soviet bloc that produced conflicts pitting allies on each sides fighting, even as the American and Soviet militaries never engaged each other. Though it never got hot between the two superpowers, the Cold War was a tense era until the dissolution of the USSR, and nothing symbolized the split more than the division...
