Not illustrated. 1908 Excerpt: .and his promises, the springs of their consolations, have hereby been recommended to the faith and joy of all the saints. The blood of the martyrs has been the seed of the church, and the conversion and establishment of thousands. Precious, therefore, in thr sight of the Lord is the death of his saints, as that which honors him; and those who thereby at such an expense honor him, he will honor. He saith unto him, Follow me. The next verse implies that this was spoken as Jesus began to move from the place, and that Peter literally followed him, for a short distance, at least. Whether the bodily act was or was not the shadow of a spiritual act, to which the words of Jesus pointed, is not wholly certain, but such a reference is probable. Peter heard the words, Follow me, and rose and went after Jesus. John did the same without any special call. There are those who need definite impulses; others who are guidrd in life by their own constant love. John would always absorbedly follow. Pctor had yet to learn to follow, to own a leader. He had to learn to seek the guidance of his Lord s will; to wait upon that will and to interpret it-- never an easy thing to do, and least of all easy to a man like Peter, fond of managing, of taking the lead, too hasty to let his thoughts settle and his spirit...
