The young girl with some companions dedicated herself to the Sacred Heart in 1800, and became Superior, under Pere Varin, 5 years later. The Religious are to consecrate themselves as much as can be done by persons of their sex, to the sanctification of their neighbours, as the work dearest to the Heart of Jesus. When obliged to apply to worldly studies for the sake of teaching them they must be on their guard against the vain pretensions of this haughty age, and never pass the bounds that humble and wise discretion prescribes to their sex. These ladies were expected to take up learning with a pair of tongs; and it is to the advantage of Mere Barat...
