I have learned that hope, which I had thought small and delicate like a moth in the night, can be hard as steel, a blade in your hand. Dark nights waiting by his daughter Inara s hospital bed and a long journey through the Beatitudes in Koine Greek challenged everything Stant Litore thought he knew about being blessed and poor in spirit, and what it might mean to live a life of unstoppable hope. In this deeply personal and insightful study, Litore invites you into that journey, too.
